

Contact No:9431492307, 9708235962

P.G. Diploma in Computer Applications (PGDCA)

Course Objectives:

The course has been designed for students with just Bachelor degree from any UGC Recognised University in India who are looking forward to a challenging career in the computer applications, computer based jobs as well as Computer Technical Assistant in different private and public sectors. The course aims at providing exposure to advance level of IT, Management, software applications and maintenance. Students are also exposed to advance software applications, e-business and website management. Successful students will be able to secure superior position in software programming and applications in the corporate sectors as well as government sectors.

Major Emphasis :

Course Structure for Post Graduate Diploma in Computer applications (PGDCA)

Semester I	Paper –I : Fundamentals of Computers , Unix , Windows and MS Office Paper-II : Programming skill through C Paper-III : Data structure through C , Computer Network and Internet Awareness .
Semester II	Paper-IV : Object Oriented Programming Using C++ and Web Technology Paper-V : DBMS & SAD Paper-VI : Paper-VII : Paper VIII : Practical papers Paper- IX: Project Work

Course Duration : 1 year (Two Semesters)

Academic Session: July to May

Eligibility for Admission:

The candidate must have passed the Bachelor Degree from UGC recognised University in India where Mathematics must be in Intermediate either as core or optional subject.

III. Other Computer Programmes in the Department of Computer Applications

- 1. Certificate Course in Computer Applications (CCA) (6 Months)
Fee :- 3000/- One time payment

Eligibility for both Programmes :-

Candidate must be 10th Pass from any School Examination Board.